

Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat Ltd

Celebratory Plaques

Terms & Conditions

1. The character count includes spaces between words and any punctuation marks, and is strictly limited to the maximum number. We cannot accept any request that does not adhere to this.
2. There will be a one-off payment of £150 or £180 for a plaque.
3. Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat has the right to reject a plaque if the wording is of a nature which is unacceptable for public viewing or unacceptable to the standards set by Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat Station or the maximum number of lines or characters is breached.
4. Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat has the right to remove any plaque if it is deemed illegible. The client will be notified of the costs of a replacement and offered the opportunity to pay for a replacement if they so wish. If they do not wish to replace it Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat Station has the right to offer the space to another member of the public.
5. Flowers cannot be attached to a plaque to commemorate a special day.
6. The Client has the right to polish their plaque at their own risk and with no hindrance to the public or to the everyday working/training of Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat and must leave the area immediately if requested to do so by a representative of the Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat in the event of an emergency call.
7. Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat is not responsible for cleaning or maintaining plaques at any point.
8. Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat takes no responsibility for damage caused by harsh weather conditions or by vandalism.
9. No person is permitted to unscrew and replace any plaque at any time.
